THE TWO PLATFORMS.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

Resolved, That we rejoice in the glorious national victory of 1868, which has brought peace, happiness and prosperity to us as a nation.

Resolved, That we wholly approve of the principles and policy of the Administration of General Grant, and we heartily endorse every sentiment contained in his inaugural address, and especially do hereby ratify and approve the late amendment proposed by Congress to the Constitution of the United States, and known as the fifteenth amendment.

Resolved, That we have confidence that the General Administration will wisely and firmly protect the interests and dignity of the nation in respect to our just claims against Great Britain, and that we endorse the action of the Senate in rejecting the Johnson-Clarendon treaty, known as the Alabama claims.

Resolved, That we heartily sympathize with the struggling peoples of all nations in their efforts to attain universal freedom and the inviolable rights of man.

Resolved, That we confidently endorse the Administration of General John W. Geary as wise, economical and honest, and that it deserves, as it has received, the approval of the people of Pennsylvania, and we especially commend his uniform efforts to restrain the evils of special legislation.

Resolved, That in Hon. Henry W. Williams, our candidate for the Supreme Court, we present a learned, pure, and patriotic jurist, who will adorn the high position to which we purpose to elect him.

Resolved, That we reiterate and affirm our adherence to the doctrine of protection, as proclaimed in the ninth resolution of the platform adopted at the State Convention of March 7, 1866.

Resolved, That we endorse the ticket this day nominated, and pledge to it our hearty and cordial support.

Resolved, That the Chairman of this convention is hereby authorized to appoint a chairman of the State Central Committee on the joint recommendation of the candidates this day nominated, and that the State Central Committee shall consist during the coming campaign of the same number of delegates from each county as the last committee, and they shall be appointed by the Senatorial and Representative districts, except Allegheny, which shall have eight members.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

First. That the Federal Government is limited to the grants contained in the Federal Constitution; that the exercise of doubtful constitutional powers is dangerous to the stability of the Government and to the safety of the people; and the Democratic party will never consent that the State of Pennsylvania shall surrender her great right of local self-government.

Second. That the attempted ratification of the proposed fifteenth amendment to the Federal Constitution by the Radical members of the last Legislature, and their refusal to submit the same to a vote of the people, was a deliberate breach of their official duty, and an outrage upon every citizen of the State; and the resolution making such ratification should be promptly repealed, and the amendment submitted to the people, at the polls, for acceptance or rejection.

Third. That the Democratic party of Pennsylvania is opposed to conferring upon the negro the right to vote, and we do emphatically deny that there is any right or power in Congress or elsewhere to impose negro suffrage upon the people of this State in opposition to their will.

Fourth. That reform in the administration of the Federal and State governments in the management of their financial affairs is imperatively demanded.

Fifth. That the movements now being made for the amelioration of the laboring man have our most cordial co-operation.

Sixth. That the legislation of the late Republican Congress outside of the Constitution; the disregard of the majority therein of the will of the people and the sanctity of the ballot-box, in the exclusion from their seats of Representatives clearly elected; the establishment of military government in States in the Union, and the overthrow of all civil government therein, are acts of tyranny and usurpation that tend directly to the destruction of all republican government, and the creation of the worst forms of despotism.

Seventh. That our soldiers and sailors who carried the flag of our country to victory must be gratefully remembered, and all guarantees given in their favor most faithfully carried into execution.

Eighth. Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native-born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality, which shall command the respect of foreign Powers, and furnish an example of encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty, and individual rights.

Ninth. That the present internal revenue and taxing system of the General Government is grossly unjust, and means ought to be at once adopted to cause a modification thereof.

CHARITY.

When you meet with one suspected
Of some secret deed of shame,
And for this by all rejected
As a thing of evil fame,
Guard thine every look and action;
Speak no word of heartless blame;
For the slanderer's vile detraction
Yet may soil thy goodly name.

When you meet with one pursuing
Ways the lost have wandered in,
Working out his own undoing
With his recklessness and sin,
Think, if placed in his condition,
Would a kind word be in vain?
Or a look of cold suspicion
Win thee back to truth again?

There are spots that bear no flowers—
Not because the soil is bad,
But the summer's genial showers
Never make their bosom glad;
Better have an ear that's kindly,
Treated sometimes with disdain,
Than by judging others blindly,
Doom the innocent to pain.

A Thrilling Incident at Niagara.

In the very centre of the seething, whirling cauldron of waters known as the American Rapids, lying equidistant between the American shore and the islands, and Bath Island Bridge and the brink of the Falls, a rock projects two or three feet above the water. The eye rests upon it merely as upon a speck in the midst of this angry flood; with every dash of the torrent pouring down from the plateau above it is half submerged, and sometimes wholly hidden from sight. At the time of this casualty a log, three or four feet in length, had been jammed in or under this rock, and protruded from it. The spot was one that was in the daily sight of hundreds, and in the early hours of that memorable summer morning the first man who had occasion to cross the bridge was startled and horrified to see a human form standing erect, in the midst of the raging, swirling flood, on this little point of rock, wildly waving his arms. He must have shouted, too, but his cries were drowned in the uproar of the rapids. It was Joseph Avery, the sole survivor of the unfortunate boat's crew. It was conjectured that the boat must have sped down to this point, unharmed by rocks or rapids, and that, striking here, Avery was thrown or sprang out, finding just room enough for a perilous foothold, while the other two, with the boat, were swept on over the cataract.

The alarm quickly spread. It is not difficult to draw a crowd at Niagara—for the excitement seekers of the world are there—and in half an hour the bridge and adjacent shores were thronged with horrified yet curious spectators. With them came some dozens of boatmen, laborers and others, who comprehended at once that there was a chance for rescue, and immediately began to devise a plan. In the meantime the man had been recognized by some one, and while the preparations were being made a large board was rudely lettered with the words, in German, "We will save you!" and held up so that he could read it. He tossed his arms up and down several times, in token that he comprehended its meaning; and then the crowd awaited the result of the preparations, and watched the object of them with almost breathless interest. It was truly frightful to see him there amid that howling waste, almost in the jaws of the mighty cataract, and apparently cut off from all human aid. But as the day wore on, and the poor fellow became used to the situation, he seemed to bear it with much composure. Sometimes, to change his position, he sat down upon the rock, and sometimes made gestures to the crowd, the meaning of which could not often be understood. His face, seen through a glass, looked eager, almost beyond the expression of human faces, but it was hopeful, too.

As noon approached the first attempt was made for his rescue. A large raft had been constructed of heavy plank, bound together crosswise, and this was to be lowered down from the bridge, with strong ropes, to the castaway, when it was thought that he could be drawn up without great difficulty. The venture was a failure from the start. The rapids seized and whirled it away before the men at the ropes could check it; the ropes became entangled, the raft was carried far below the rock, and at last went helplessly over the falls.

It was a bitter, bitter disappointment—as well to the sympathizing, expectant throng as to the imperilled man. But, nothing daunted, the stout hearts and ready hands immediately set about the making of another raft, while others were occupied in conveying food and drink to poor Avery. This was easily done in tin cases, attached to stout cords, which were floated down to him. The castaway ate his solitary meal there upon that inaccessible point of rock with keen relish, and then stood up and bowed his thanks. Again and again the cheering words, "We will save you," were exhibited, and he was encouraged by other short sentences in his native language, which were in the same way painted in huge letters and held up to him.

The afternoon slowly wore on—the long, hot, listless summer afternoon at Niagara, usually devoted to idling over iced drinks in the shade of the hotel porches or parlors, but now cheerfully given up to the assistance of, or sympathy for, a fellow being. There were hundreds in that crowd who, prompted by that spirit of American chivalry which is never wanting among us, would have cheerfully plunged in to his rescue, could the act have been any other than useless foolhardiness; and there were wealthy men there, who went through the crowd under the deepest sense of emotion, offering large rewards to whoever would rescue him. The telegraph had, by this time, carried the news far and wide; the afternoon papers in New York on this day contained it, and the afternoon trains from Buffalo and Rochester came freighted with hundreds more to view the peril of the poor German far from themselves.

The building of the second raft progressed; but, although everything was done to hasten it, darkness found it unfinished, and the crowd unwillingly dispersed for the night. The Omniscient alone can tell how that poor forlorn soul passed the dark, dreary hours that intervened before morning; sleepless from necessity—weary, lonely, with the waters raging like unchained beasts all around him, and the great abyss of terror yawning almost at his feet. Some sweet hope must have sustained him in that trying time, or the morning would have found him dead there upon the rock of his dreadful exile.

Daylight came, and with it the eager crowds hastened back to their points of sight. The incoming trains all that day brought more, and more spectators, and before noon the bridge was literally crowded with them, leaving but a small space in the centre for the workmen with the raft; and on either side the bank was lined—nay, packed—with spectators. There were thousands upon thousands present, all eager, curious and yet sympathetic. Avery appeared as on the day before, still hopeful, eating and drinking what was sent down to him, motioning with his hands and arms, and watching all that was done on the bridge and the shore.

The crisis of the excitement arrived when, about the middle of the second day, the second raft was launched from the bridge upon the hurrying flood. Strong and willing hands held the ropes, and it was cautiously lowered until it almost touched the spot where the castaway stood. With a bound he placed himself erect on the raft; and then arose such a shout of rejoicing from the lips of that multitude that it was heard even above the roaring of the waters.

It was a short-lived joy. The ropes were manned by all the hands that could find places, and the raft struggled up a little way in the teeth of the rapids, and then a furious volume of water broke over and upon it, washing it from end to end, and hurling Avery bodily into the rapids! One faint, desperate hope remained to him: as the irresistible current hurried him down he might, by stout swimming, make the shore of Chapin's Island, some rods below, and to the west of him. It was a furious, terrible struggle for life; and while the multitude held their breath and looked on, it seemed at first as though the man might still save himself. He almost reached the shore of the little island but he never gained it. Some said that the bush upon which he laid his hand broke in his grasp, others thought that his strength left him when a few more strokes would have saved him. He yielded himself to the fury of the rapids, and an instant later his body was hurled over the fatal abyss, amid the shudders and groans of the heart-sick spectators.

Those who were nearest the spot where he went over were certain that his dying shriek, full of the horror of despair, articulated the name, Mary.—J. FRANKLIN FITTS, in Packard's Monthly, for September.

WHAT PENN PAID FOR PENNSYLVANIA.—We give below the deed by which the State of Pennsylvania was transferred to William Penn by the Indians in 1685.

This indenture witnesseth that we Packenah, Jarchkam, Sikals, Partquesott, Jervis, Essepenauk, Folktroy, Hekellappans, Ecconus, Machloka, Mettheongas, Wissa Powery, Indian Kings, Sachemakers, right owners of all lands from Quing Luingus, called Duck creek, into Upland, called Chester creek; all along by the west of the Delaware river, and so between the said creeks backwards as far as a man can ride in two days with a horse, for and in considerations of these following goods to us in hand paid and secured to be paid by William Penn, proprietary and governor of the provinces of Pennsylvania and territories thereof, viz: 20 guns, 20 fathoms matchcoat, 20 fathoms stroudwater, 20 blankets, 20 kettles, 20 pounds of powder, 100 bars of lead, 40 tomahawks, 100 knives, 40 pairs of stockings, 1 barrel of beer, 20 pounds of red lead, 100 fathoms wampun, 30 glass bottles, 30 pewter spoons, 100 awl blades, 300 tobacco pipes, 100 hands of tobacco, 20 tobacco sangs, 20 steels, 300 flints, 30 pairs of scissors, 20 combs, 60 looking-glasses, 200 needles, 1 skippie of salt, 30 lbs. sugar, 5 gallons of molasses, 20 tobacco boxes, 100 Jewsharps, 20 hoes, 30 gimlets, 30 wooden screw boxes, 100 string beads. Do hereby acknowledge, &c. Given under our hands, &c., at Newcastle, second day of the Eighth month, 1685.

☞ "What's that?" asked Mrs. Partington, looking up at the column of the Place Vendome during her late visit to Paris. "The pillar of Napoleon," she was answered. "Well, I never did!" she exclaimed; "and that's his pillow—he was a great man to use that. But it's more like a bolster. And it's made of iron, I do believe. Ah! Isaac, see what it is to be great. How hard his head must have rested on his ironical pillow!"

Friendship.

O, Friendship! how rare a gem! A gem that's seldom found and valued as it should be. True enough, we may find in the moral as well as in the natural world, gems, pearls and precious stones; but when we consider with what great skill and labor they are obtained, we cannot wonder at their value, and then indeed can we truly estimate the brightest and purest of all jewels—true Friendship. We are all aware that many metals when first found, before refined, are termed pure and genuine, but the refining process will only bring out to us their hidden value. But, alas, how often do we find after they are subjected to the process of purification they have lost their beauty and have only the appearance of brass or a mere mass of nothingness. "All is not gold that glitters." So it is with Friendship. Often you think you have obtained a gem of the heart's richest treasure, when first you meet some persons in their golden form; but, ah, Time, the refiner and the fire of dark and gloomy hours, will but test their fidelity. Many are the friends when the sun shines and the sky is bright, but let clouds lower and the sun of fortune hide himself, then where are they? They are gone like summer birds—they have flown away and are no more. Some friends, like some jewels, are merely washed; they may wear awhile, but time will eventually wear them off and expose the rough places. Acquaintances we may make, friends we may form, but time, the solver, alone will tell if they are worthy of the name they bear. It is not when Aurora gilds our morn and we neath her rosy beams sail on tranquil waters, that we need friends, but when we appear hemmed in as it were with mountains of darkness, and the waves beat fast and high against our frail life-bark. Then it is that we most need and could more fully appreciate the sunny smile and sympathizing heart of some dear friend.

What strangely constituted beings we are. Instead of gently aiding a brother or a sister to steer his or her life boat over the ocean of life, when it would be but a small favor, and make our voyage smoother by casting light upon another's, we would rather dash from them their very oars and sink them in an unknown grave. What depravity! And O, deplorable fact, how prevalent has the terrible malady of gossiping become! Why, a stranger going into a strange community has his name and character handled as though it were mere chaff for its flames. O, let us be more charitable, remembering all are human, and kind bear each others burdens.

A. M. B.

SINGULAR CASE.—We have already mentioned the report that a young man named William Powell suddenly became deaf and dumb at Bell's Station, Tennessee. The first report was that he had been mimicing a deaf and dumb boy, and the strange visitation followed. He tells a somewhat different story, however, in a published letter, which we subjoin. It should be added—and this explanation probably removes the case from the realm of mystery—that on Sunday evening previous, young Powell, in attempting to jump from a hand-car, which was running rapidly, was thrown heavily to the ground. His severe fall added to the intensely hot weather the day after, doubtless caused the affliction under which he labors. The following is his letter:

"The cause and effect of this day's work with me, July 12th, 1869. This morning when I started to Galloway, just to have some fun, I thought I would act dumb to the newsboys and others. So I acted till I reached Galloway where I got off and acted as I should have done all day. About twelve o'clock I got some crackers, and ate them, and attended to the business I went to attend to. About three o'clock in the afternoon, while waiting for the train to return from Bell's Station, my whole system became dull, my head dizzy, my whole body seemed lulled into a kind of dumbness, my hearing began to cease, and finally I became senseless of any sound at all. My tongue became as if it were asleep, like your hand has been. Indeed my whole system was lulled to a dizziness, and since that time I have heard no sound and breathed no word. I am deaf and dumb.

"My friends, please take warning and meek not the God who made you nor His work.

WM. POWELL."

Brigham Young's Family.

The number of Brigham's living wives is eighteen, exclusive of those who are merely sealed to him for the next world. He has been credited with more than this, and it is now stated that he has less; but I am informed on the best authority that a correct census of his household would show eighteen wives and forty-nine children. Among the latter is a bevy of as handsome young girls as can be found anywhere. These are, of course, in demand, and they are marrying off pretty fast. Sometimes he gives more than one of them to the same man, as for instance, to the Superintendent of the Western Union Telegraph Office, who has two of Brigham's daughters, and is doubly a son-in-law of the Prophet. It is said that the old gentleman has recently made it a rule that whoever marries the last daughter of one of his wives, shall take the mother home also. This may account for the reduced estimate of his wives, which has lately been given. One of the Mormon officials in Salt Lake City has for one of his wives his step sister, the daughter of his own mother, while the marriage of a man to a mother and her daughter is by no means uncommon. An old Dane living near Ogden has for wives a mother and her three daughters. According to the Mormon view, this is commendable, as it keeps families together. A beautiful girl of 18 or 19 was pointed out to me on the street recently by one who knew her well. She was brought to this Territory when quite a child, by her mother, who embraced the Mormon faith in the West, came here and married an elder. The mother is an intelligent, educated woman, the daughter refined and accomplished, and knows something of the world, having made several trips to California, where she has relatives. Yet her step-father, in whose house she is living, is now urging her to marry him, and her own mother is backing up the suit, the arguments being that the marriage will prevent the separation of the parent and child in this world, and secure to the latter eternal happiness in the next. The girl loves her mother, and but for the opposition of her relatives in California would no doubt have succumbed to the pressure. In the country districts it is said women are really bought and sold like sheep. Two old fellows will make a bargain by which each agrees to become father-in-law and son-in-law to the other, or when there is only one daughter in the case a yoke of cattle or some other equivalent is given.—This swapping is not confined to outlying settlements. A prominent Mormon in Salt Lake—a man of intelligence and education—told me that he only consented to let one of his daughters become a sixth wife at sixteen because he himself wanted a relative of the suitor of the same age for his own fifth wife. He did not have the slightest shame in the confession, and seemed to think it a good joke.

FAT MEN.—On the 19th ult., there was a remarkable collection of fat men, numbering one hundred and forty, of the most "hefty" ones of New England. This assemblage occurred at Gregory's Point, in the town of Norwalk, thirty-five miles east of New York City. It was a remarkable sight. One hundred and forty men assembled for a clam bake, none of whom weighed less than two hundred pounds, and from that up to three hundred and fifty-eight pounds. The first six named on the list had a total weight of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two pounds, and an average weight of three hundred and twenty and one-eighth pounds. The total aviordupois of the one hundred and forty men was thirty-one thousand three hundred and eighty-five pounds, and an average of two hundred and twenty-four pounds.—John A. P. Fisk, of New York, was elected President of the Association, he being the heaviest man in the lot, weighing three hundred and fifty-eight pounds. There was a regular feast, and such eating as was never seen.—Clams did not go a-begging for an eater. For two hours the contest raged, and the clams gave not out, nor did the fatties give in until even their huge bulk was solid, and further room was none. Thirty bushels of oysters, forty-seven bushels of clams, eight barrels of sweet potatoes, seven barrels of white potatoes, three hundred and fifty lbs. of blue fish and other fish were cooked for this tremendous meat and—make a note of it—sufficed.

On account of the great heat of the day the foot race and wrestling match were postponed until the next annual meeting.

HOW TO PROSPER.—In the first place make up your mind to accomplish whatever you undertake; decide upon some particular employment and persevere in it. All difficulties are overcome by diligence and assiduity. Be not afraid to work with your own hands, and diligently, too. "A cat in gloves catches no mice." Attend to your own business, and never trust it to others. "A pot that belongs to many is ill stirred and worse boiled." Be frugal. "That which will not make a pot will make a pot-lid." Be abstemious. "Who dainties love shall beggar prove." Rise early. "The sleeping fox catches no poultry." Treat every one with respect and civility. "Everything is gained and nothing lost by courtesy." Good manners insures success. Never anticipate wealth from any other sources than labor. "He who waits for dead men's shoes may have to go barefooted."

LEWIS & LINDSAY.

☞The shoe is on 'tother foot now. Somebody must feel bad—we know—we were there once.

☞The Monitor is "tickled to kill," because it fancies it sees a big hole in the Republican organization.

☞Soldiers sometimes can be used by their enemies—it is a question whether such soldiers are soldiers.

☞How much of his wealth did Asa Packer give during the war to the Christian and Sanitary Commissions?

☞If Gen. Grant is anxious for the success of the Republican party in this county, he should be looking after those who are holding office under him.

☞Senator Scott and Gov. Geary are announced by the State Central Committee to speak in Troy, Bradford County on the 4th inst., and at Towanda on the 6th. They open the campaign, which promises to be short, sharp and decisive.

☞Mr. Asa Packer, of Mauch Chunk, now the Democratic twenty millionaire candidate for Governor is the master spirit of all the monopolies in the Lehigh Valley. Poor men, remember this when you go to the polls in October.

☞Alex. H. Stephens is out in another long-winded letter, in which he attempts to prove that the South had a right to secede, and that secession is not unconstitutional. The old rebel had better quit writing about such foolish things and attend to his dying, of which we have heard so much about.

☞As long as the Monitor associates us with Republicans who are true to the Republican organization and its ticket we will not complain. We intend to be with all who will fight square up "on principle" for the county ticket and the success of the party in the State.

☞We are sorry to know that a few of our good personal friends who two years ago fought us because we were "out," are now trying to go "out" themselves, and are fighting us because we are "in," and permanently "fixed," and can't see it to go "out" again. We must be excused from playing the fool a second time.

☞If disorganizers in every other county in the State work as the disorganizers in this county feel like working, Geary's majority may be slightly cut down. It is only when and where our party works harmoniously with a bold and solid front in the face of the Democracy that the great Union Republican party can expect to win.

☞If the Republican organization of the county should permit a disorganizer to be Chairman of its County Committee, of what service would such committee be to the party? The party would be more harmonious and more successful without a Committee than to have a packed Committee with such a Chairman.

☞The Democrats of Centre County have laid P. Gray Meek on the shelf to dry, and nominated Jacob G. Meyer. He misrepresented that County in the Legislature two winters, and still he was not satisfied. Meek is a "red-hot" Democrat of the "Brick" Pomeroy School, and apes after the fashion of the La Crosse Democrat, through the columns of the Watchman. It won't win even in Centre County.

Meeting of Mr. Logan's Packed Committee.

M. M. Logan, chairman of what he would like to force upon the Republican organization as the Republican County Committee, offered us for publication a call for a meeting of his packed Committee, but as we intend to oppose anything like disorganization we refuse to publish it, and shall refuse to recognize any action of the Committee as speaking for the Republican party. Mr. Logan must understand that he cannot expect to lead in an organization he appears to be a willing help to try to destroy. He cannot oppose the ticket of the party and at the same time expect to be recognized as chairman of an important committee of the party. The committee he calls together was appointed contrary to the expressed direction of the County Convention, and whilst we may be correct in admitting the loyalty of a large majority of the members of the Committee to the ticket, we must deny that they were appointed in accordance with the instructions of the Convention. The following motion made in the Convention by H. C. Weaver, and which we find in the proceedings of the Convention as handed over to us by Mr. Shaffner one of the Secretaries, and the same is to be found in the "full report of the proceedings" as published in the Journal and American, reported by Robt. McDivitt, editor of that paper, and adopted without opposition: "ON MOTION, THE DELEGATES TO THIS CONVENTION WERE AUTHORIZED TO NAME THE MEMBERS OF THE COUNTY COMMITTEE."

In the face of the above facts, Robt. McDivitt, editor of the Journal and American, will deny in that paper of this week that any motion of the kind was offered or adopted in the Convention. We know, as others do, that the above motion was made and put to the Convention by the president, and declared by him adopted.

The Committee has been packed by the Chairman and the disorganizers acting with him for the purpose of creating dissensions in the organization of the Republican party of the county. He has refused positively to put on the Committee many whose names were handed to him in accordance with the motion adopted by the Convention, asserting that he would select the Committee himself.

The true party men on the packed Logan Committee should not respect his call until he is willing to obey the instructions of the Convention that unfortunately for the harmony of the party elected him. The action of the Logan packed Committee will not be respected by the Republican party.—The purpose of Mr. Logan and his advisers is disorganization and the defeat of a portion of the Republican ticket, and Republicans who do not wish to be recognized as unfaithful to their party organization should be very careful what company they get into.

As the Journal & American is under the control of the disorganizers we will keep the true men of the party advised of their movements. It is the duty of a party paper to support the party ticket and the party organization, and to oppose anything and everything and anybody opposed to either

☞McClellan, Seymour, Clymer, were all defeated on their record during the rebellion. McClellan, though a good soldier, gave himself, body and breeches, to the Democrats who declared the war "a failure;" Seymour, a pleasant old gentleman, was dragged to death by his compatriot Frank Blair, who was in favor of revolution, and by his concessions to the rebels; Clymer, the first man the Democrats put up to run against Geary, was defeated on his war record—and now we have Packer, who comes out as the gigantic millionaire, who with all his wealth refused to give the government one dollar to help it in the struggle for freedom and right, and who even steals away when the tax collector comes round. O, Asa, we envy not your wealth, we do not want your lucre, but won't you let us know if you have done something to make you popular with the people. Your admirers can tell us nothing about your liberality, and we can not help but believe that you are penurious, very. Why were you not the Robert Morris of the slaveholder's Rebellion, and given of your wealth to aid in crushing treason? Was it because your sympathies were all in favor of "Southern rights?"

☞The Journal & American of this week pitches into us about a foot or two because we did not act with the Republican party two and three years ago. Then we were honest enough to go "out" and act openly against the organization, but the Journal & American editors play the disorganizers under cover of the party they dishonor. Be men—and be what you claim to be—not enemies of the party in disguise.—Tell your masters to come out of the dark with you. Remember, you will succeed about as well this fall as you did in your guerillaism against the soldier, Capt. Neely, last fall.

☞Robt. McDivitt says he always declined being a candidate for an office when a wounded soldier was an applicant for the same. Yes, Robert always declined after he discovered that he couldn't get a nomination. How generous—self-sacrificing. What a powerful display of love for the soldier!—How about declining in favor of Capt. Blair?

Party Organization, and Success.

The Republican party can only be defeated by the disorganization of its ranks. To prevent disorganization the minority must yield to the will of the majority. A County Convention of delegates from all the election districts represents the party of the county, and its action is positive with all true friends of the party. Our late County Convention nominated a full county ticket—and that ticket can only be defeated by men professing to be friends of the Republican party. As yet there is no public, outspoken, manly opposition to the ticket, but we hear and see daily a guerrilla opposition to it—not because it is not composed of as good men as in former campaigns, but because certain men were successful in not having placed upon the ticket more of their selection.

The first step taken by the disorganizers after the adjournment of the Convention was to ignore the action of the delegates in the appointment of a County Committee. That Committee the Convention directed should be appointed by the delegates, but the selection of Committee men made by delegates has been treated with silent contempt by the Chairman of the Committee who has not hesitated to declare that he will oppose the election of at least a portion of the ticket. The Chairman, Mr. Logan, had no authority to appoint a single member of the Committee. The Committee he and his disorganizing associates may recognize as a Committee is not the Committee authorized by the Convention and will not be recognized by the Republican party of the County as the County Committee, and we give Mr. Logan notice that unless he speedily obeys the directions of the County Convention that the Convention will reassemble and displace him and appoint a Chairman who will be true to the party, its organization and its interests. The Union Republican party cannot afford to have at the head of its county organization a man unwilling to work in harmony with the friends of a regularly nominated ticket. We say to all honest Republicans in the county, organize in your districts—stand firm to your party nominations—treat with contempt all who are trying by the disorganization of your ranks to give the sham Democracy a victory over you.

MORE QUESTIONS FOR DEMOCRATS.—Did Asa Packer do what he could to crush the rebellion?

Wouldn't his $20,000,000 have gone far to help to feed and clothe soldiers?

How much money did Asa Packer give to Christian and Sanitary Commissions?

Did Asa Packer, like Gov. Geary, lose a son in the army?

Would it be fair or just to elect a man like Packer as Governor of this State, who never helped to obtain its credit as a loyal State.

Asa Packer, with all his money, skulks from paying his taxes. Is he a safe man to trust as Governor?

Asa Packer, a man who never did anything to support his Government, accepts the position as candidate for Governor over Gen. Hancock. Should you vote for him?

The Bogus Logan County Committee.

We wish it to be distinctly understood that we are not opposed to the men as Republicans placed upon the Logan Committee by Mr. Logan. We are opposed to them acting as Committee men only because they were not appointed as directed by the County Covention, and we are pleased to hear of several appointed by the disorganizers who will refuse to act with or recognize Logan's Committee as the County Committee of the party. Mr. Logan and his few guerrilla advisers will soon learn how "unpopular and unprofitable" it is to undertake to disorganize and defeat the Republican organization of the county.

☞There are two things which the Journal & American has never yet been guilty of—playing guerilla and going back on a soldier."—Journal & American.

How about your guerrillaism to defeat Capt. Neely last fall. How about your denouncing Scott and Morrell on the public streets for appointing Capt. Blair to the Post Office? Did you decline in favor of Captain Blair? How about it gentlemen? Are you in favor of the election of every man on the Republican County Ticket? If yes, say so, and so inform your readers.

☞The opposition of the disorganizers appears to be mainly directed at Mr. McK. Williamson, the candidate for County Treasurer. We wish every voter in the county could be personally acquainted with McK. Williamson. He is not the kind of man to be defeated by disorganizers, and Mr. Cloyd will learn to his sorrow that he made a great mistake in allowing himself to be influenced to run in opposition to the regularly nominated Republican candidate.

☞The great international Boat Race between the "Harvard" (American, crew and "Oxford" (English,) took place on the 27th ult., on the Thames The race was contested inch by inch. The Oxfords won by three boats lengths. The "Harvards" were only six seconds behind. The race was one of the most closely contested ever rowed in British waters.

The frost was so heavy in Wayne county, the two evenings preceding the eclipse, as to kill whole fields of buckwheat.

☞The Lehigh Register announces its determination to fight Asa Packer with its whole strength; "to bring facts upon facts to show that he is not fit to be Governor of Pennsylvania; that his promises are to be scorned as worse than stuff; that he acquired his wealth as other millionaires have acquired theirs, and that in trying to delude laboring men into voting for him by declaring that he was once one of them and acquired his fortune by honest toil, he displays a weakness the people of Pennsylvania don't admire." It also says: "There will be dead men arising from their tombs to give in their testimony, and the people, notwithstanding the false swearing of Democratic newspapers and the pleadings of Democratic orators, shall bring in a verdict of guilty, and sentence him to stay in private life, where he will have more opportunities to invent Lehigh Valley freight companies, and compel the people to pay higher freights than the railroad company could legally charge."

☞The Hon. Asa Packer is no doubt a rich man and he may be a great man, yet he is not above those infirmities which beset noble minds. He is much cut up by the Mauch Chunk Gazette for diddling Carbon County out of taxes for the support of schools, of almshouses and of roads, by pretending to live in Philadelphia. He "stays" in Carbon about as much as ever, and keeps up there a handsome establishment, and when he is "at home," i. e., when taxes are to be assessed, he is, from his head to his heels, a Philadelphian! Thus, says the Gazette, "he defrauds the county of taxes which rightfully belong to its treasury, by turning over his taxes to a county a hundred miles away. Here is a prophet who clearly is not entitled to much honor in his own county, whether he may get it or not.

☞Hon. J. P. Wickersham, State Superintendent of Common Schools, was elected President of the National Superintendents Association, which held its sessions at Trenton, N. J., a few days ago. This is a deserving compliment to Prof. Wickersham, who is one of the most able, earnest and active educators in the United States. It is also an honor to Pennsylvania, to be accorded the place at the head of the National Association of educators. We are proud to know that Pennsylvania stands second to no other State in the Union in educational matters, and under the lead of Prof. Wickersham, the old Keystone is constantly advancing upward and onward in the good work.

☞The Monitor askes us "about" how much it cost to nominate our county ticket. We can't say exactly. We believe there were about 78 delegates present. The expenses of each delegate, including travel, boarding, ice cream and other refreshments were about $5 to each man—total $390. Then add about $10 for each of the twenty-three candidates—ordinary and extraordinary expenses, total, $230—grand total $620.00—about how much it cost to nominate our ticket—now we'll bet the editor a half barrel dry-salt herring that it will cost his party more to nominate a full ticket, to be defeated, than it cost our party to nominate our ticket, to be elected.

☞The Republican County Convention of Mifflin County met in Lewistown on the 24th ult., and nominated Gen. T. F. McCoy for Assembly; Alexander Morrison for Sheriff, and Charles S. Marks for County Treasurer. The best of good feeling prevailed throughout the proceedings. We learn that the Republicans of little Mifflin are fully aroused to the importance of the issues in the present campaign, and intend to make a vigorous fight, with a determination to win. The convention selected the very best in the county, from Assembly down, with a full determination to elect every man on the ticket. We wish them God-speed in the good work.

A BRIEF LETTER.—A correspondent writes to Brick Pomeroy, the following brief put pointed letter, which is more expressive than elegant:

August 10.

M. M. Pomeroy:—I have just finished reading to-day's Democrat. You are certainly a damned fool. Yours, CANDOUR.

We imagine we can here the people, the press, the pulpit, the bench, the bar,—in fact, everybody but a few unhung rebels—exclaim in the fullness of their hearts, Amen. Indeed, Brick don't deny the soft impeachment, but then, like the clown, perhaps he gets paid for being a fool.

☞The Democrats of Mifflin county met in Convention on the 23d ult., and placed a county ticket in nomination. They did not nominate a candidate for Assembly, it being conceded to Juniata county. The Gazette says that the principal nomination was for treasurer, with plenty of candidates, thus affording ample material for collecting a good candidate, but the Convention, with its usual wisdom, selected the most unpopular, least influential and least deserving of the whole lot.

☞The Democrats of Dauphin county have gone to the trouble of nominating a county ticket. As usual Gen. Joe Knipe has been placed on the ticket, only to be awfully beaten again, as he was for Congress last fall.

In Louisiana they have settled the question of Chinese suffrage. Seven Chinamen have been registered in a single parish.

Political Powder-Flask.

Why should the Connecticut carpet-bagging, penurious speculator, Asa Packer, be elevated above all our native citizens to be Governor of the great Commonwealth of Pennsylvania?

The Republican Banner (Democrat) of Nashville, is disgusted with the New York World for claiming the result in Tennessee as a victory for the Democracy as represented by the World.

The Boston Traveler says that State street highly commends Secretary Boutwell's policy, and expects that if gold and bonds are kept so near par as at present, specie payments will be resumed by July, 1870.

Truly we live in a progressive age; but that would be a big step backward to elect Asa Packer as Governor of Pennsylvania, who is the representative of all the nauseous principles of the Peace Democrats.

Asa Packer was never popular at his own home as a political aspirant. Even before the war, and his inglorious "war record" was formed, he only run four votes ahead of his ticket, as a Councilman. Where will he be as Governor?

Not a single candidate for office in Kentucky, at the late election, who had been in the Confederate army was defeated. This is the result over which the Democrats of Ohio throw up their hats, and which they claim as a "great Democratic victory." And so it is.

Information wanted of William Matchler and C. L. Pershing. Any facts regarding these two individuals will be gratefully received by the Democratic papers of Pennsylvania.—Feats of statesmanship, loyal sentiments, patriotic acts, etc, particularly requested.

Though the Vermont election is but three weeks off, and that of Maine but four weeks off, there is not the slightest political animation in either State. No public meetings are being held, the local papers scarcely allude to the subject, and with the people themselves the question of Pendleton and Hays in Ohio, and Packer and Geary in Pennsylvania, are of much more interest.

Packer is an avowed free trader, and carried his free trade principles into practice by purchasing the iron for his railroads in Europe. But what difference does it make to him whether the rolling mills of Pennsylvania are in operation or suspended? He is immensely rich and can live in affluence if the toiling rolling mill men have to stint themselves to keep their wives and children.

The Mauch Chunk Gazette, published at the home of Mr. Packer, says he is very unpopular there, even among his own party, and "from present appearances he will not carry half his party vote in the coal mines." "His pettish conduct and niggardly want of liberality towards his own county and town, has alienated very many of our citizens who have known him longest and best."

There is an open rupture between the Tammany managers and the Manhattan Club party. The "William M. Tweed Democratic Association," at a meeting Friday evening, adopted resolutions denouncing August Belmont, chairman of the Democratic National Committee as an inefficient, undevoted unsuccessful, and unpopular chairman; charging him with the defeat of McClellan, and that if he remains in the position he now occupies he will "inevitably lead to the defeat of Hoffman in 1872," and demanding that he surrender the chairmanship, which he will not probably do at the bidding of Mr Tweed or his heelers.

☞The New York Evening Post, speaking of the situation of the two political parties, describes that of the Democrats exactly in a few words, as follows: "Pledged to oppose Chinamen in California and negroes in Ohio, but affiliating with them both in Virginia and Tennessee; supporting repudiation in Ohio and Kentucky, and compelled to oppose it in New York and Pennsylvania; denouncing military usurpation in Texas, but having a Governor to uphold in New York for taking military possession of a railroad—the Democratic managers have a heavy and inharmonious load to carry."

An incomplete canvass of this borough by a committee of the Young Men's Christian Association shows 450 families, 831 children over four years of age, of whom only 125 do not attend any Sabbath School. An effort will be made to secure their attendance at the Sabbath school of their preference.

J. B. G. Kinsloe, of the Williamsport Bulletin, says of our town: "Huntingdon presented to us very much the appearance of that town in 1838. There have been improvements, it is true, but she has not kept up with the spirit of the age." While it is true that Huntingdon has not kept up to the "spirit" of Williamsport and a few more towns, still the most noticeable improvements have taken place within the last three years; and there appears to be no diminution in the zeal of our citizens to keep the ball moving. Huntingdon of to-day is by no means the Huntingdon of 1838.

Caution.

Extended success in any department of business justly awakens competition, and owing to defective mental and moral structure, often begets envy. Now these are to be expected and may be met by energy and determination; but not unfrequently the bounds of legitimate rivalries are overstepped and base, unscrupulous men stoop to use the patronage of others to further their nefarious purposes. With the assistance of science, and by means of industry and honesty, in providing a potent remedy, Dr. Stoever's Old Standard Tonic Herb Bitters, have attained unparalleled celebrity, having been before the public for the last thirty years.

Wherever they have entered the sick or complaining household, their effects have even exceeded expectation, and so far surpassed all we have ever claimed for them by circular, card, or otherwise, that the public confidence in the medicinal qualities of the Bitters is unbounded. We do not fear the competition of the empirical throng who attempt to palm off remedies upon the people, which are not scientifically compounded, and are destitute of available qualities. Their empiricism will be discovered in the end, and the inefficiency of their preparations found out. We would rather be envied for merited success than despised for failure, however ungenerous it may be for man either to envy or despise. Against another and a worse class of individuals, we are forced to take action. We allude to those who take advantage of our popularity, and attempt to gain public favor and confidence by counterfeiting the Old Standard Bitters, barely imitating the label, or making other approaches to its preparation calculated to deceive, and as a matter of course, in so far as they succeed, to bring our excellent Tonic into disrepute. The public are hereby warned against all such imitations. In order to further protect ourselves, and save the afflicted from imposition, we have concluded to change our Label so as ever hereafter to sustain our identity, and keep the reputation of the Old Standard intact.—We incur great expense by so doing, but the end warrants the means. The new label along with the caption, directions and neat ornamentation will present an excellent steel portrait of C. H. Kryder, the senior member of the firm. This will be the badge of its genuineness, as well as a guarantee of the quality of the Bitters. The label will be duly copyrighted, and thus placed beyond the reach of counterfeiters. By no fault of ours shall the public confidence ever be abused or the reputation of the Old Standard be allowed to suffer. None genuine unless signed

Good Advice.

Let our possessions be what they may—marble palaces, broad lands, magnificent plate, or caskets of "precious stones"—they all sink in the balance against Heaven's great boon, Health, and they cannot be enjoyed without it. And yet how little is it valued, and how carelessly preserved. The laws of nature cannot be violated with impunity.—Night revelry, luxurious living, irregularity of meals, and a disordered appetite, will gradually destroy the power and activity of the stomach. How many ladies and gentlemen eat and drink disease at late suppers, and arise in the morning with headache, loss of appetite, feeling languid and unrefreshed. There can be no medical remedy that can turn lead into food, or poisoned drinks into nutriment, but medical science can assist nature, supply exhausted fluids, and to a great extent correct the effects of disease. In all cases such as the above, we recommend Plantation Bitters. You will find them just the thing—at the same time a most delicious tonic and appetizer.

Red Men's Pic-Nic.

Saturday, the 11th inst., will be an eventful day in Huntingdon, if the weather is favorable. The Order of Red Men, in this borough, have sent invitations to neighboring tribes to be present at their pic nic and corn-dance at Cottage Grove, and we suppose there will be a grand twisting of tongues in pronouncing the names of tribes that expect to be represented. Full-blooded Indians are expected to be present, and will give our citizens an ocular demonstration of the much-penned war-whoop and war-dance.—The "half breeds" will be out in full force, and will do their share to make the day pleasant and joyous to all.—Our citizens and others from abroad are invited, and we trow they will not regret giving an afternoon to this jollification, at such a delightful grove.

First Appearance.

It will be surprising to our citizens to know that the Siamese Twins have returned from Europe, and intend coming direct from New York to Huntingdon, where they will make their first appearance since their return. We believe this noted couple (if we can call them couple) were never exhibited in our town before, although they have been before the public for a number of years, and we know many of our citizens desire to see them. They will be here on Thursday next, at the National Hall, and it is to be expected that there will be a full turn-out to see these old Original Siamese Twins, particularly as Huntingdon is honored with their first appearance. State Fair.

It will be seen upon reference to our columns that the next exhibition of the Pennsylvania State Agricultural Society is to be held in Harrisburg, opening on Tuesday, the 28th of September, and continuing until the 1st of October. The premium list is more than usually liberal, amounting to about $10,000. As the society is about to hold consecutive exhibitions at a fixed locality, its officers have had leisure to perfect conveniences which will add much to the comfort of both exhibitors and visitors. A new feature in agricultural exhibitions is introduced into the regulations of this year, indeed it is but an experiment which we hope will prove a successful one. It is the admission of all articles and animals free of charge upon compliance with the requirements of the society relative to entries. Other details relative to the society can be obtained by addressing the Secretary at Harrisburg.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—We often hear the expression, he is a good citizen; but we have as often wondered whether the term was aptly applied. A good citizen in our estimation is one who has at heart the welfare of the town and the community in which he lives. He is one who does not discourage enterprise; but one who while he carefully avoids lending his countenance or means to the establishment of that which is destructive to the morals and intelligence of his fellow-beings, always uses his utmost endeavor to improve each and every characteristic of a sober, steady and progressive town. The good citizen does not find fault with his poor neighbor, who is trying to get along the best way he can; nor does he envy his rich one, who from a small but honorable beginning has amassed considerable of this world's goods, in a frugal, honest and energetic way. The good citizen is known by his disposition to help himself and to help others. He will not see others suffer; but will rather sacrifice a little self comfort in order to place his fellow-creature on a sure foundation. This, however, is a trait of character often witnessed; and how many alas, have gone down to irretrievable ruin through a lack of sympathy and a helping hand, from those who could well afford to spare it. The good citizen is not a drone; as he moves he makes everything about him move. He fills the slothful with more vigor, the despondent with more hope, and every soul feels the warmth of his presence, and is actuated to increased activity. A good citizen receives the benedictions of those around him, and is constantly encouraged to find something new upon which to feed and strengthen. Little escapes his notice that is calculated to improve the town in which he lives, and so it should be with every citizen that desires to perpetuate industry and enterprise.

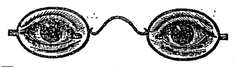
UNFAILING EYE PRESERVERS!



Lazarus & Morris'

CELEBRATED

PERFECTED SPECTACLES AND EYE GLASSES.

The large and increasing sales of these

SUPERIOR GLASSES

Is a sure proof of their usefulness. We were satisfied that they would be appreciated here as elsewhere, and that the reality of the advantages offered to wearers of our beautiful lenses viz.: the ease and comfort, the assured and readily ascertained improvement of the sight, and the brilliant assistance they give in all cases, were to themselves so apparent on trial, that the result could not be otherwise than it has, in the almost general adoption of our CELEBRATED PERFECTED SPECTACLES by the residents of this locality.

With a full knowledge of the value of the assertion, we claim that they are the most perfect optical aids ever manufactured. To those needing Spectacles, we afford at all times an opportunity of procuring the best and most desirable.

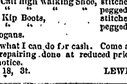
RAW BONE

SUPER-PHOSPHATE OF LIME.



STANDARD WARRANTED.

We offer to Farmers, the present fall season, BAUGH'S RAW BONE SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME, as being highly improved.

Baugh's Raw Bone Super Phosphate is, as its name indicates, prepared by dissolving Raw Bones in Oil of Vitriol—that is, bones that have not been deprived of their organic matter—the grease and glue—by burning or boiling. It, therefore, presents to the use of the farmer all the valuable properties of Raw Bones in a highly concentrated form—rendering it at once quick in action and very permanent.

☞ Farmers are recommended to purchase of the dealer located in their neighborhood. In sections where no dealer is yet established, the PHOSPHATE may be procured directly from the undersigned.

HUNTINGDON, PA.

A DROLL EPITAPH.—The wife of a good Deacon bid farewell to this vale of tears in the goodly town of D, in Connecticut, leaving the widower disconsolate indeed. After having laid her in the quiet resting place, he ordered a costly marble to be erected over the loved and lost, and with the name and age, the following inscription:

"Let her rest in peace."

The sculptor, either a bungler or very careless, found after carving the words "Let her," he had not sufficient room to finish the sentence, so concluded the initials of the other words as to convey the meaning. We can imagine the consternation of the worthy deacon at seeing so irreverent a motto on her tomb stone:

"LET HER R. I. P."

☞ A certain queer genius, whose prominent specialty was an aversion to water, happened to come home late one night, with that peculiar, furry sensation about his tongue and tonsils which gentlemen who rejoice in Clubs will remember as part of their experience. His wife had left standing upon a bureau a tumbler, in which—for some purpose known to housewives—she had put a small ball of silken thread to soak. Without observing this fact, Bibulous seized the tumbler, and swallowed its contents. Feeling a thread in his mouth, he began pulling upon it. To his horror, yard after yard came stringing forth, until, in an agony of excitement, he cried out:—"Lucy, Lucy, for God's sake come here, I'm unravelin'."

☞ An American minister of fine descriptive power was on one occasion preaching about Heaven, and to show the absurdity of Emanuel Swedenborg on the subject drew a graphic picture of the Swedenborgian heaven, with its beautiful fields, fine houses, cows, and pretty women; and in the midst of his glowing description, a good old sister, carried away with the scene, went into raptures, and exclaimed, "glory, glory, glory!" The preacher was so disconcerted that he paused, seeming hardly to know what next to do, till the presiding elder, in the stand behind him, cried out to the shouter, "Hold on there, sister, you are shouting over the wrong heaven."

☞ An old lady, who was in the habit of declaring after the occurrence of an unusual event that she had predicted it, was one day nicely sold by her worthy spouse, who had got tired of her continual "I told you so."—Rushing into the house breathless with excitement, he dropped into his chair, elevated his hands, and exclaimed: "Oh, wife, wife, what—what do you think? The old, brindle cow has gone and shot up our grindstone." The old lady was ready, and hardly waiting to hear the last word she broke out at the top of her lungs, "I told you so! I told you so! You always would let it stand out of doors."

☞ A little boy and girl, each probably five years old, were by the roadside. The boy became angry and struck his playmate a blow on the cheek, whereupon she sat down and began to cry. The boy stood looking on sullenly for a minute and then said: "I didn't mean to hurt you, Katie; I am sorry." The little face brightened instantly. The sobs were hushed, and she said: "Well, if you are sorry it don't hurt."

☞ Judge Norbury was interrupted in his charge to the jury by the loud braying of a donkey in the street. "What's that?" asked the judge. Mr. Parsons, with whom the judge had a fiery flare-up, rose, and gravely assured him that it was merely the echo of the court."

An old farmer in Ohio, having read that the State Penitentiary cleared seven thousand dollars by the labor of the convicts, sat some time in deep thought, and then exclaimed: "I think we'd better turn our Legislature into a penitentiary, by jingo."

Ayer's
Hair Vigor,
For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a
nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,
For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.
Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against accidents and emergencies, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.
Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.
Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.
Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.
So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

Ayer's Ague Cure,
For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.
As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it is in no wise injurious to any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of its radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.
Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.
For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.
For Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed.
Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & Co., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold all round the world.

SPANISH HAIR DRESSER
FOR PROMOTING THE GROWTH, BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR,
And rendering it dark and glossy. No other compound possesses the peculiar properties which so exactly suit the various conditions of the human hair. The use of this oil as a hair dresser has been universal in every section of the country in the Spanish Main for centuries.—No preparation of art could give that elegant luxuriance and abundance of hair which have so often been the admiration of travelers in Spain. This oil is highly and delicately perfumed, forming an article unrivaled in excellence and upon which the Spanish people for many years have set its seal of enduring approval.
McGUIRE'S
Mexican Wild Flowers Shampoo Lotion
For removing dandruff and scurf from the head, whitening and performing the skin. This article is entirely different from anything of the kind ever offered in this country and is warranted free from all poisonous substances This valuable lotion was used by the Emperor Maximilian, and Empress Carlotta of Mexico, and universally used by Mexicans for three hundred years. As a wash for the head—it is cooling, cleansing and refreshing.—When thus used it at once relieves headach.
